Mr. Box called upon the Vice President for Institutional Advancement to report on website usage. Mr. John stated that usage of the College's website is monitored monthly using Google Analytics, which provides information on the traffic that comes to the website. Since August 1, 2011, the website has had a total of 941,908 visits from 133,555 unique visitors, resulting in more than 2 million pageviews. Mr. John discussed with Regents the bounce rate for website visits, average time spent on the site and top content that is accessed by users. He noted that visits from mobile devices have tripled since September 2010 to nearly 15,000 visits per month. The monthly usage data provides a greater understanding of how students are using the college website to access information and be connected to the college.

The Chairman called on the President for his report. Dr. Sharp reported on the renovation of the Allied Health Building and gave an update on SPC's SACS status.

Meeting adjourned.
