Course Specific Instructions: INET classes go to Blackboard Learn 9; On campus additional materials are available on Blackboard.

Course Description: This course is a general study of diverse world cultures. Topics include cultural practices, social structures, religions, arts, and languages.

Course Purpose: This course is an introductory course designed to provide students with an understanding of how society is structured, as well as an understanding of the theories and language of anthropology. A holistic approach will be utilized to explore ideas of aesthetic and intellectual creation in order to understand the human experience across cultures.

Course Requirements: To maximize the potential to successfully complete this course, the student should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments in a timely manner and complete all examinations including the final exam. Internet courses require the work to be completed in specific time periods.

Course Evaluation: Refer to the instructor's course information sheet for specifics on assignments and testing.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration.

Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

See instructor's Course Information Sheet for additions to the attendance policy.

Disability Services Policy: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-7162529. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

- Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the text-book or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

- Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identifiable expression of material taken from books, Internet resources, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

Feel free to call, e-mail, or come by during office hours if I can help you be successful in this course. I wish you all the luck this semester and hope that the grade that you achieve in this course will reflect the effort you put into it.

Attendance Policy: Class roll will be taken during each class meeting and a record of attendance will be maintained. You will be responsible for the material presented in class as well as the assigned material from the textbooks. Administrative Drop Policy: Due to Financial Aid and South Plains College requirements for participation/attendance a student who fails to attend 5 classes during the semester may be dropped with a grade of "X" from the course. Similarly if a student fails to turn in two of the major assignments (i.e. tests, projects, or quizzes), he/she may be dropped with a grade of "X" from the course. Tardiness: Being late does not constitute being absent but it is very disruptive and rude to come to class late so allow enough time in your schedule to arrive a few minutes early to class. If you do arrive late, quietly take a seat closest to the entrance. Also, it is your responsibility to sign the roll sheet or you will be counted absent. This is IMPORTANT! Cell phones should be silenced or turned off during class. Use of other electronic equipment should be discussed with the instructor.

Assignment Policy: Exams: Four exams worth 100 points each will be given during this course and will consist of multiple choice, identification, and/or essay questions. Make-up exams will not be given in this class. Contact the instructor immediately if you miss an exam. The final exam will not be cumulative. If you have an emergency and miss an exam, or if you wish to replace the lowest exam score (excluding the last one), you may do a second term project from the list options. This must be approved by the instructor prior to submitting the second project. You must be present on campus to take exams unless other arrangements are made with the instructor.

Late work: : No late work is accepted in this course. Follow the calendar and plan ahead. "Get out of jail" option for Revel assignments. You may use your "Get out of jail free" card twice during the semester for a missed assignment or a low score you would like to replace. You must send your requests within one week of the original due date to receive full credit for missed assignments/replacement assignments. Please send requests using the Blackboard email function. Each jail card is worth approx. 50 points or one chapters worth of material.

Blackboard is the computer software used to deliver this course. It is essential that you have reliable access to the Internet. It is not necessary to purchase or own your own computer but you should have a backup plan in place should you encounter computer problems. Firefox is the recommended browser for Blackboard. There are open computer labs available to all enrolled SPC students on all campuses. Should you encounter technical difficulties contact the instructor first, and/or the SPC technical support.

Also you may contact blackboard@southplainscollege.edu or call (806) 894-9611, ext. 2180. Be sure to include course and section number information when contacting technical support.

There are three regular types of assignments required for this course: Revel reading assignments/quizzes, Timmerman reading assignments and class participation/film critiques. There are also four unit exams.

Revel reading assignments: A Revel code is required for this course. This provides an ebook version of the textbook and access to online course content. There will be reading comprehension questions assigned for each chapter using this tool. The reading questions in Revel are worth 1 point each and you have unlimited attempts to complete them.

Revel Chapter Quizzes: There is a quiz for each chapter we will cover in the course. Each quiz question is worth 2 points. You may attempt each question twice but the second attempt will only be worth 1 points rather than 2. These are open book/open note quizzes but it would be best to read the material before attempting to take the quiz. You will be able to track your progress on the My Grades page located on the course homepage as well as in the Revel program. The quizzes combined with the reading questions are worth approximately 50 points for each chapter although this varies somewhat.

Unit Exams: 4 @ 100 each: These will consist of multiple choice, short answer and essay questions. Exams are not "open book" and you must be present in the computer lab at the designated times and dates to take the exam. See calendar for dates. There are no make-up exams. If you miss an exam due to an emergency, contact the instructor.

Class Participation Points: These will be in class opportunities to earn points. You must be present to participate and there will not be opportunity to make up these points. 200 points for the semester.

Reading Assignments: There are six sections in the Timmerman book. We will discuss three in class. For the remaining three, you are to complete two of the three section reading assignments. Any outside sources should be documented using APA documentation style (see the citing sources page or the SPC library home page for more information on how to do this). Each assignment should make at least three specific references to textbook information. These references must be cited and referenced according to APA style. You may use Word attachments or copy and paste your work directly into the submissions window in the assignments function.

All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English.

Writing Tips:

1. All written work should be typed or computer generated with one inch margins in a standard 12 pt. font. Please use Word for attachments.
2. Any references used should be listed at the end of the paper using APA style and within the body of the text according to APA procedure. Using reference material without proper documentation constitutes plagiarism which is a serious academic offense. Wikipedia is not considered a valid academic source. Do not use it!
3. For the assignments in this class, it is better to write using first or third person pronouns. Therefore it is appropriate to use "I, me, mine" or "he, she, their, we." It is not appropriate to use "you" or "your." Please avoid writing in 2nd person.
4. Be sure to proofread your work for grammatical and spelling errors. Use the "enable html" button within the email, assignments, and discussion functions to run a spell check. Also remember that "healthy" paragraphs are usually comprised of at least three sentences organized around a central idea.
5. Text message language and abbreviations are not standard written English and therefore are not acceptable in this course.
