ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating - Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in the office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of coursework. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism - Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

The student is required to make up any class missed due to an absence. There are no excused absences. Refer to the SPC Catalog, 2014-2015, page 19 for attendance policies.

ASSIGNMENT POLICY

Lab assignments comprise approximately three (3) hours per week. The majority of lab assignments will be conducted in class; therefore, regular class attendance is essential. Assignments for lab will be distributed each week and it will be difficult to make up labs conducted during class. Additionally, lab assignments are designed in a progression of activities. Therefore, completing the assignments in the order provided is necessary for the successful completion of the course objectives.

GRADING POLICY - Grades in this course will be determined using the following criteria:

During the course of the semester, there will be no make-up examinations. A student may choose to not participate in one (1) examination during the course of the semester. If a student selects this option, exams will be valued at 40% of the course grade and the final exam is valued at 40% of the course grade. Examinations will be a combination of objective and essay discussions, verbal demonstrations of skills, and demonstrated communications skills.

Please note that the final exam is comprehensive and based on the course competencies and objectives.

Grading Policy:

The final grade of this course will be determined by the average of the following:

A. 4 Exams	50%
B. Comprehensive Final	30%
C. Lab (80% lab activities& 20% journal)	20%
	100%

Grades are assigned within the following range:

A = 100 - 90
B = 89 - 80
C = 79 - 75
D = 74 - 70
F = Below 70

COMMUNICATION POLICY

ACCOMMODATIONS

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

ADA STATEMENT

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office through the Guidance and Counseling Centers at Reese Center (Building 8) 716-4606, or Levelland (Student Services Building) 716-2577
