ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating - Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in the office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of coursework. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Module exams vary in the number of questions; however, the student will receive 1 minute per question to complete the exam. Exams are located under the Exam tab in Blackboard. Examinations will be open-book and taken from the student’s home or preferred location and are due to be completed by the dates listed on the class schedule. These exams are not to be done in groups, but individually. Once entered the student must finish the exam in one setting; if a student exits the exam it will automatically submit. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the facilitator if technical difficulty occurs during the examination immediately through SPC email or via text messaging. Without proper notification within 24 hours of exam completion, access will not be granted and possible questions missed will not be reviewed. Any exam not completed during the assigned time frame will receive a zero. During the exam NEVER click the Back, Forward, or the Refresh buttons. Let the screen resolve when saving an answer before clicking next. Exam reviews are not permitted. There are no “dropped” grades or extra credit assignments in this course.

Policy on Exam Administration:

Exams will be administered according to the schedule set by the course facilitator documented in the course syllabus. Any changes to the exam schedule will be at the discretion of the course facilitator.

To better prepare the student for the licensure exam testing format, unit, and comprehensive exams will be administered as follows:

- Questions will be given to the student one at a time.
- The student must answer and save the answer before going to the next question.
- The student will not be allowed to return to previous questions.
- Any question not saved by the student will be marked wrong.

DISCUSSION BOARD FORUMS:

Students will be required to complete three discussion board forums accounting for 20% of the final course grade. Students may find the grading rubric and additional instructions on Blackboard under Course Content, Discussion Board Forum module. The forums are due by the dates listed on the class schedule in the syllabus. Failure to complete the discussion board by the due dates will result in a zero. There are no makeups or extensions for discussion boards as this is an interactive assignment with peers and must be completed during the assigned time frame. It is the student's responsibility to locate the discussion forum in blackboard; if a student is unable to view the forum the student should notify the course facilitator on the first day of the forum and notify information technology.

NURSING THEORY PRESENTATION:

Each student will complete a nursing theory presentation accounting for 20% of the final course grade. Each student will be assigned one nursing theorist for the presentation to develop a complete and thorough analysis of the theorist and one nursing theory. Students can elect to work together in groups of no more than two students. Groups must be in the same section on Blackboard. Faculty will not assign group members. Students electing to work as a group can choose either topic assigned to complete the presentation. Students may find the nursing theory presentation list and grading rubric on Blackboard under Course Content, Nursing Theory Presentation Module. The presentation is due by the dates listed on the class schedule to the assignment drop box located on the left hand column of your Blackboard tool bar.

Failure to upload the presentation to the assignment link will result in a 10 point deduction each day late up to 3 days. After three days, the student will receive a zero for the assignment. All students who choose to work in groups are required to submit individually to the assignment tab for grading. Failure to submit individual assignments will result in a deduction.

GRADING POLICY

The grade for this course will be determined upon completion of the following components:

Exams	60%
Discussion Board Forums	20%
Nursing Theory Presentation	20%
Course Total	100%

Course grades are based on the following scale:

- A= 90-100%
- B= 80-89.99%
- C= 77-79.99%
- D= 60-76.99%
- F= below 60%

TO CALCULATE YOUR OVERALL AVERAGE: DO NOT ROUND

- A. Take your Exam Average and multiply it by .6: $81.5 \times .6 = 48.9$
- B. Then take your Nursing Theory Presentation and multiply it by .2: $90 \times .2 = 18$
- C. Then take your Discussion Board Forum Average and multiply it by .2: $84.2 \times .2 = 16.8$

ADD: A + B + C together to get your overall course average: $48.9 + 18 + 16.8 = 83.7$

STUDENT CONDUCT

Rules and regulations relating to the students at South Plains College are made with the view of protecting the best interests of the individual, the general welfare of the entire student body and the educational objectives of the college. As in any segment of society, a college community must be guided by standards that are stringent enough to prevent disorder, yet moderate enough to provide an atmosphere conducive to intellectual and personal development.

A high standard of conduct is expected of all students. When a student enrolls at South Plains College, it is assumed that the student accepts the obligations of performance and behavior imposed by the college relevant to its lawful missions, processes and functions. Obedience to the law, respect for properly constituted authority, personal honor, integrity and common sense guide the actions of each member of the college community both in and out of the classroom.

A student is not entitled to greater immunities or privileges before the law than those enjoyed by other citizens. Students are subject to such reasonable disciplinary action as the administration of the college may consider appropriate, including suspension and expulsion in appropriate cases for breach of federal, state or local laws, or college rules and regulations. This principle extends to conduct off-campus which is likely to have adverse effects on the college or on the educational process which identifies the offender as an unfit associate for fellow students. Any student who fails to perform according to expected standards may be asked to withdraw.
