

SYLLABUS: ARTS 1301 ART APPRECIATION – 2021 FALL ONLINE

South Plains College

Instructor: Scotty Hensler, Assistant Professor of Art

Email: shensler@southplainscollege.edu

Office Hours: Office Hours: by appointment via email, Mo/We 10:30 am - noon & 2:15 - 3:15 pm at Levelland, Tu/Th 11 am - noon at Reese, Fr 11 am - noon at Levelland. Arrangement for other times are possible.

Course Description: This is an introductory course that studies visual culture including arts through an exploration of ideas and processes, including evaluation of selected items, works, and creating individual projects. No prerequisite required. This course should not be taken by an art major or an art minor.

Online Course:

This class is asynchronous. We will not meet online as a class at any specific time. That means you decide when to review materials, but you may also need to meet assignment deadlines weekly. Each week, I will post presentations, readings, viewings, audio, discussions, and all your assignments here in Blackboard.

This course is fully online and can be done at any time. Weekly participation and completion of week's module content is required with much flexibility as to whether you participate day or evening, or during the week or on the weekend. Whether you participate during the week or over the weekend is up to you, as long as you do not miss weekly content. Please login to Blackboard and participate a minimum of two times per week to fully complete all posted module content and check Blackboard content and assignments. You should expect to spend a minimum of 3-6 hours per week in this course, or the equivalent to the time spent in an on-campus ARTS 1301 course.

Dates: Important college dates can be accessed on the SPC website such as: Last day to Register, Withdraw Date, Holidays, and Final Exams. Dates for assignments will be announced in class, on Blackboard and accessible online.

Course Objectives

- Cultivate a greater appreciation and understanding for visual culture, arts, its elements, practice and theory

COVID-19 Statement: General Guidance for Testing of and Exposure to COVID-19 – Rev. 8/19/2021 All faculty, staff and students who are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms will be asked not to attend class or work and to contact their healthcare provider immediately. Additionally, anyone who is experiencing symptoms should contact his/her faculty member or supervisor as well as DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at x2376 or dedens@southplainscollege.edu.

Any individual who has a positive COVID-19 test should contact DeEtte Edens and their faculty/supervisor immediately. Those with a positive test will be required to quarantine for the recommended timeframe. DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN will advise in consideration with CDC and DSHS guidelines.

SPC Return to Campus Plan – 8/19/2021 South Plains College will not track exposures based on close contact, and will not quarantine these exposed individuals. Individuals who are exposed to someone with a known positive COVID-19 test are encouraged to either self-quarantine for the recommended time period identified by the CDC or wear a face covering for the same time period while in an SPC building. Neither of these will be required but are strongly encouraged. Faculty will be notified of any positive exposures in their class. They will accommodate the individual being quarantined as well as any other students who are self-quarantined due to exposure.

IF YOU ARE TESTED POSITIVE, PLEASE CONTACT DEETTE EDENS, BSN, RN AT 806-716-2376 OR DEDENS@SOUTHPLAINSCOLLEGE.EDU FOR QUARANTINE GUIDANCE.

Asymptomatic Positive (Tested positive for COVID-19 but had no symptoms) - If a person continues to have no symptoms, he/she can be with others after 10 days have passed since positive test. Social (Physical) Distancing Social, or physical, distancing is highly encouraged while at South Plains College.

Other medical and mental health needs: As your instructor, I am committed to working with students with pre-existing medical and mental health needs, as well as new needs that may arise within the semester. I encourage you to reach out to me as early as possible to discuss any adjustments you think may be necessary in this course. Reasonable accommodations may include leveraging the course modules that have been developed in creative ways to maximize your access during times when students need to quarantine due to COVID exposure, or during an absence related to a disability or COVID-19 diagnosis. While I cannot guarantee any specific outcome, I am committed to working with you to explore all the options available in this course.

Class participation: Class participation and active learning are important aspects of this class, so your engagement is critical to your success regardless of modality/delivery. However, I understand that sometimes you must miss examinations or other academic obligations affecting your grades because of illness, personal crises, and other emergencies. I will work with you as best I can to help you succeed in the course. Please contact me as soon as possible when such absences arise so we can make arrangements to get you caught up. This policy will not apply in the case on non-emergency absences.

Technology Requirements: To be successful in this course, you will need to be able to access and use SPC email, online readings, videos, and video meetings usually through Blackboard. If online access for you could be an issue, please contact me to figure out options. You also need access to a digital camera, like on your phone will do. If you don't have access to a camera, let your instructor know so that we can figure out options.

SPC Standard Disability Statement: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) & Lubbock Center 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Non-Discrimination Statement: South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College -1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336, 806-894-9611

Diversity Statement: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. There will be zero tolerance of disrespectful or inappropriate language or behavior. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but model society as it should and can be.

SPC Mission Statement: In order to accomplish its mission, South Plains College is committed to the following institutional purposes: To provide students the opportunity to learn as a lifelong endeavor; to acquire skills for communication, critical thinking and problem-solving; to explore the use of technology; to express creativity; to experience leadership; and to grow socially.
