https://socialsci.libretexts.org/Bookshelves/Sociology/Introduction_to_Sociology/Introductory_Sociology_3e_\(OpenStax\))

Course description: The scientific study of human society, including ways in which groups, social institutions, and individuals affect each other. Causes of social stability and social change are explored through the application of various theoretical perspectives, key concepts, and related research methods of sociology. Analysis of social issues in their institutional context may include topics such as social stratification, gender, race/ethnicity, and deviance.

Core Curriculum Objectives addressed:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Empirical and quantitative competency skills—to manipulate and analyze numerical data or observable facts resulting in informed conclusions
- Social Responsibility—to include the demonstrated knowledge and competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Compare and contrast the basic theoretical perspectives of sociology.
2. Identify the various methodological approaches to the collection and analysis of data in sociology.
3. Describe key concepts in sociology.
4. Describe the empirical findings of various subfields of sociology.
5. Explain the complex links between individual experiences and broader institutional forces.

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment: See instructor's course information sheet for information on assessment that may include the following: pretests and posttests, quizzes, discussions, essays and/or other types of assessment tools.

Course Evaluations: Refer to instructor's course information sheet for specifics on coursework and grading.

Attendance Policy: As per the SPC General Catalog: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus. When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first-class meeting. Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy. It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through Texan Connect. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

See instructor's course information sheet for additions to the attendance policy.

Academic Integrity: As per the SPC General Catalog: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

More Information About Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following: 1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill; 2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation; 3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; 4. Missing in-text citations; and 5. Using any form of A.I. to create or write your responses

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following: 1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion; 2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given; 3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment; 4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage; 5. Taking an examination for another; 6. Altering grade records; 7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment; 8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's; 9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: As per the General Catalog: Rules and regulations relating to the students at South Plains College are made with the view of protecting the best interests of the individual, the general welfare of the entire student body and the educational objectives of the college. As in any segment of society, a college community must be guided by standards that are stringent enough to prevent disorder, yet moderate enough to provide an atmosphere conducive to intellectual and personal development. A high standard of conduct is expected of all students. When a student enrolls at South Plains College, it is assumed that the student accepts the obligations of performance and behavior imposed by the college relevant to its lawful missions, processes and functions. Obedience to the law, respect for properly constituted authority, personal honor, integrity and common sense guide the actions of each member of the college community both in and out of the classroom. Students are subject to federal, state and local laws, as well as South Plains College rules and regulations. A student is not entitled to greater immunities or privileges before the law than those enjoyed by other citizens. Students are subject to such reasonable disciplinary action as the administration of the college may consider appropriate, including suspension and expulsion in appropriate cases for breach of federal, state or local laws, or college rules and regulations. This principle extends to conduct off-campus which is likely to have adverse effects on the college or on the educational process which identifies the offender as an unfit associate for fellow students. Any student who fails to perform according to expected standards may be asked to withdraw. Rules and regulations regarding student conduct appear in the current Student Guide.

In addition to the above policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Course Information Sheet

SOCI 1301-Introduction to Sociology

Instructor Information:

- Name: Brant Farrar
- Office: Lubbock Downtown Center, Room 2003 (upstairs by the elevator)
- Office Hours: Posted on Blackboard and office door
- Contact Info:
 - Online classes should first use Blackboard Messenger unless it is an urgent message, then use the email below.
 - Email (Preferred): bfarrar@southplainscollege.edu
 - Phone: (806) 716-4657 (Include your name, class, and a detailed message.)
 - Responses: Typically within 24 hours (weekdays) or 48 hours (weekends/holidays).

Key Deadlines

- All deadlines are 11:59 PM unless otherwise noted. Deadlines for work are primarily Tuesdays and Fridays. If you don't like those days, submit early on a day you pick. Other due dates are noted for exams.
- Late work is NOT accepted. Plan ahead and submit early.
- Download and print the Course Calendar/Checklist for detailed deadlines.

Course Policies

- Attendance:
 - Participation is required: Submit work, engage in discussions, and complete assignments in a timely manner to demonstrate "attendance".
 - Merely logging in does not count as attendance.
- Late Work:
 - Strictly not accepted. Submit early to avoid last-minute issues.
 - Plan ahead—network or technical excuses are not valid.
- Communication
 - Check SPC email and Blackboard daily.
 - Professional emails should include proper spelling and grammar.

AI Policy

- AI is a great tool for brainstorming, getting started, and editing your work.
- However, AI should NOT do your work for you. Submitting work generated by AI tools is plagiarism.
- Consequences range from a zero on the assignment to being dropped with an "F."
- Suspected misuse will require students to demonstrate content mastery in a discussion.

Administrative Drop Policy

- Unless there is serious issues with plagiarism or severe behavioral issues, I do not drop students from the course. All students should take ownership of their academic journey. If you are failing, don't want to do the work, or decide you have too much going on in your life, then you should drop the course before the final drop date.

Technology Requirements

- Hardware:
 - Computer with software download capability
 - Sound card and speakers
- Software:
 - Microsoft Office (Word: .docx, .rtf, or .pdf only)
 - Blackboard for submissions and course material
 - Current browser: Mozilla Firefox or Google Chrome
- Internet Access: Regular, stable, and fast enough for video streaming.
- Technical Support: blackboard@southplainscollege.edu | (806) 716-2180

Blackboard Essentials

- Primary platform for coursework and grades.
- Log in frequently to stay updated: Blackboard Login.
- Save copies of work and submit early to avoid disruptions.

Online Etiquette

- Engage respectfully and professionally in discussions.
- Debate ideas, not individuals.
- Avoid personal attacks and maintain academic tone.

Academic Integrity

- Plagiarism Policy:
 - Submit only your own work. Cite all outside sources appropriately and any use of AI.
 - Do NOT allow anyone else, other than yourself, to submit or complete your coursework. Study groups/buddies are great, but you are responsible for doing your own work.
 - Plagiarism may result in redoing an assignment, a zero on an assignment, required verbal demonstration of knowledge on the part of the student, or being dropped from the course with an "F".
 - Avoid sharing or using past questions, answers, or essay websites.

Sociological Perspective

- Evaluate behaviors through societal patterns, not personal judgments.
- Avoid terms like "good/bad" or "moral/immoral" in assignments.
- You have the right to believe whatever you want to believe, but you do not have the right to force those opinions onto others. You also have the right to not have opinions forced on you. This class is about facts. For example, It is acceptable to say something like "I was raised to believe that _____ is a sin." But, you will NOT be allowed to make statements for all people such as, "_____ is a sin." The distinction is vital to productive academic discussions.
- Students are not graded on their opinions or on the opinions of the professor.
- The professor uses this idea in teaching: "It is not my job to tell students how to live their lives or what they should believe."

- The overall goal is to create an environment where we can all learn and grow as members of society.

Accessibility & Diversity

- Accommodations available through Student Disability Services, available here.
- An inclusive, respectful environment is maintained for all.

Other Notes

- Extra Credit: Instructor's discretion—don't request it at the semester's end.
- Controversial topics may arise—maintain an open, respectful dialogue, and feel free to ask any questions of the professor.

COURSEWORK AND GRADES

Coursework and Deadlines

- Deadlines listed in the course calendar are “set in stone” and will not be changed unless there is a mistake by the professor which necessitates more time for students.
- Recommendation: Set personal deadlines at least a day or two before the listed deadline to avoid stress.
- Early submissions are encouraged.
- No late work accepted for grading.

Unit Exams

- Format: 60-minute timed exams, 50 multiple-choice/true/false questions.
- Coverage: Based on chapters/sections in each unit.
- Platform: Taken via Blackboard during a 3-day window.
- Final Exam: Not comprehensive.
- Note: Exams cannot be reopened after the deadline.
- Each exam is worth 100 points.

EdPuzzle Assignments

- Content: Video with embedded questions for each chapter covered in this course.

- Read the detailed instructions for Discussion Boards which are posted on Blackboard.
- Scoring: Each Discussion Board is worth 50 points.

Chapter Quizzes

- Content: Material for quizzes comes directly from the textbook material.
- Format: Ten, multiple choice items. Not timed and open note.
- Scoring: Each correct response is worth 2.5 points.
- Purpose: Quizzes should help students prepare for each unit exam.

Miscellaneous Assignments

- Examples include:
 - Course Agreement Quiz
 - Student Resources Quiz
 - Letters from Former Students
 - Letter to Future Students
 - Optional extra credit opportunities
- Scoring: The points for these items vary but will be clearly listed in the instructions for each assignment.

Grading criteria for student's final grade in the course:

Graded Items for this course:

Online Participation Agreement Quiz	= 25 points
Introduction Message Assignment	= 25 points
Letters From Former Students Assignment	= 25 points
Introduction Discussion Board	= 50 points
Student Resources Quiz	= 30 points
14 EdPuzzles @ 25 points each	= 350 points
3 Unit Assignments @ 50 points each	= 150 points
14 Weekly Assignments @ 15 points each	= 210 points
3 Unit Discussion Boards (1 original and 2 replies each) @50 points each	= 150 points
14 Chapter quizzes @ 25 points each	= 350 points
3 Exams @ 100 points each	= 300 points
