Course Description: This course is a study of the functions performed in the American system of state governments, with special reference to the development of governance in Texas and its Constitutions. This course satisfies the Legislative requirement for teacher certification.

Course Purpose: Government 2306, as taught at South Plains College, is a reading intensive course designed to acquaint the learner with the origin and development of the Texas Constitution, structure and powers of state and local government, federalism and intergovernmental relations, political participation, the election process, public policy, and the political culture of Texas. This course meets the statutory requirements as set forth by the State of Texas.
Approval Number: 45.1002.5125

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Internet Access

This course is an online course and you must have reliable access to a computer and the internet. If you do not own a computer or do not have reliable internet access then I would recommend using the computer lab, library or other appropriate alternative. You must have access to a computer and the internet to complete this course. Failure to have access to either a computer or the internet is not a valid excuse for missing assignments, quizzes, exams or other course content. Please make sure that you have a reliable internet connection when beginning exams and quizzes as you will only have one opportunity to complete those assessments.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluation student performance.

Final Exam: There will be one exam in this course. The Final Exam must be completed by the final day of class: July 9, 2019. The Final Exam will be available before the Final Exam due date but please do not complete it until after you have completed the other assessments. The Final Exam will be a cumulative exam. I will provide a study guide to focus your attention on the topics covered in the exam.

Quizzes: You will have one quiz every week which will cover all of the topics assigned for that week. The quizzes will be mini-exams and are worth a significant portion of your grade (10% of your total grade).

Essay: On three occasions you will be asked to write an essay to address a question pertaining to the subject of the week. Your essay will be a written assignment pertaining the topic of the week. You must complete your assignment in a Word document or PDF.

Discussion Posts: On three occasions you will be asked to participate in a discussion forum. I will assign a topic for discussion and you must (1) submit a discussion post addressing the question posed to the Discussion Forum and (2) you must respond to the discussion post of at least one other student. You will be graded on completion of each task as well as your use of the course material.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Plagiarism and cheating in any form will not be tolerated in this course. South Plains College policies allow a wide range of punishment for cheating including failing the assignment, quiz, exam or the course. I will be vigilant against cheating and plagiarism in any form. At a minimum you will receive a zero for the assessment if you cheat or plagiarize.

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted and there will be no opportunities to make up exams, quizzes, or other assignments after their due date. Since this is an online course you have the flexibility to complete assignments at any time throughout the week (or earlier) before the assessment's due date. Please be conscious of due dates so that you can receive credit for every assessment.

Extra Credit: There will likely be no extra credit opportunities in this course. At the discretion of the instructor extra credit may be offered on exams or some other form if necessary. Extra credit opportunities are not guaranteed and will never be offered to individual students.

Attendance Policy: Since this is an online course I will not take daily attendance. However, you are expected to complete your work on time. If you fail to complete two consecutive weeks of assessments you may be dropped from the course for failure to attend class. If you are sick or have other reasons for a prolonged absence, please email the instructor.

Classroom Discussions: Given the nature of this course students may express political views contrary to your own and while you are not required to agree with those views you are required to be respectful. I encourage you to express your own views but you must be respectful in both tone and the delivery of your viewpoint.

Diversity Statement: In this class, I will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-2529.

SPC Policy Regarding "Standard English": All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Emails: All emails should include your name, course and section number. I am teaching multiple courses and most of your other professors are also teaching multiple courses therefore it is imperative that you include this basic information so that I can (and your other professors can) address your question or concern.

Do not use the blackboard email function. If you need to contact me please use my SPC email address tholland@southplainscollege.edu.

If you do not receive a response within 48 hours please re-send the email.
