8. To initiate withdrawal from the course if absences/ missed work become excessive.

Academic Honesty: It is my expectation and the institution's that appropriate citation and documentation is given for materials and information obtained from other sources. Cases of plagiarism will be treated, as will any case of academic dishonesty, with at least a failing grade for the assignment/examination. See the SPC Student Handbook for more information.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class. Other South Plains College policies concerning Disabilities, Non-discrimination, Title IX Pregnancy and Parenting Accommodations, CARE (Campus Assessment, Response, and Evaluation), Intellectual Exchange, Campus Concealed Carry, COVID-19, and AI (Artificial Intelligence) can be found here: Syllabus Statements.

Prof. Fox on Classroom Environment: Great value is placed on freedom of expression; however certain topics are considered overdone or cliché. These topics will NOT be approved for presentations, so it is important to discuss topic selection for each speech. Some topics may be controversial, so open and honest dialogue will be allowed. Keep in mind that each person has a valuable opinion and our goal is to present sound, reasonable examples and NOT to harass or berate. If we follow these simple rules, no person should be offended, even if they disagree. If you feel there has been some offense made, it is your responsibility to bring it to my attention, in private, as soon as possible.

Contacting your Instructor: It is important you develop a network of your peers that will allow you to get specific information more quickly. That being said, I am available for you to contact me if you have questions or concerns about your progress in this class etc. You may do that by phone if necessary, but email is preferred. I DO NOT RESPOND TO MESSAGES IN BLACKBOARD. You will find my information on this syllabus or the directory at: <http://www2.southplainscollege.edu/information-for/employees/employee-directory>

Assessment and Grading: This department supports university policies of academic excellence as noted in the student handbook. Interpretation of grades should be considered within the university framework:

A=excellent, B=good; C=average; D=inferior; and F=failure.

Grades will be calculated based on the amount of points students earn, interpreted as:

A=900-1000, B=800-899, C=700-799, D=600-699, F=599 and below.

Graded Assignment Brief Descriptions:

1. Exams (2 @100 points each) and Final (100 points): Three examinations will be given in order to assess the students' grasp of the material covered in class. Two of the exams will be given during the course of the semester; the Final will be given at the end of the semester and is due Finals Week. FINAL EXAMS MAY NOT BE TAKEN EARLY OR LATE.
2. Presentations (400 points): Several of the most common types of presentations will be required of students. Students will be graded on their mastery of basic speaking principles and criteria given in class. Students will also be graded on their preparation for their presentations, and ability to communicate professionally in an online environment.
3. Daily Grades, Activities, and Evaluations (300 points total): This is a highly interactive class that will involve a number of supporting activities. Students are expected to not only engage themselves in online content, but to actively participate. Chapter Reading Quizzes will be required for each assigned reading (9 quizzes worth 15 points each, 135 points total). You will be expected to complete an outline for the Informative, Persuasive, and Special Occasion speeches (10 points each, 30 points total). You may earn points for multiple activities online (45 points total) as chosen by the instructor. You will also complete both a Self-Evaluation and a Peer-Evaluation for the Informative and Persuasive speeches (10 points each, 40 points total). Finally, you will also be given a group project (50 points total). These assignments will be online. Your syllabus contains the grade sheet above to help you keep track of your progress in the course.

BLACKBOARD USE IS LIMITED FOR THIS CLASS. You will be able to see important information, etc. in Blackboard as consistent with other SPC courses, but your work will be completed in Classavo. The due dates will ONLY be posted on your syllabus calendar and in Classavo and your most accurate gradebook will be in Classavo also. In addition, I do not accept emailed assignments unless instructed to do so when assigned. Since Blackboard use is limited, please email me directly at jfox@southplainscollege.edu.

Attendance and Tardy Policy:

Please make sure you have read and understand your Student Handbook for SPC policies. For this course, all students enrolled are expected to login to your platform and check SPC email regularly, AND be on time, and remain until dismissed for online meetings. Roll will be taken at each meeting. If a student is/going to be tardy, he/she must communicate with the instructor.

It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from this course. Otherwise, students will be assigned their earned letter grade at the end of the course. Course averages will be updated twice each week, and guidance will be provided throughout the term to help students decide whether they need to drop the class or not. For more information regarding drops/withdrawals, please visit <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/admission-aid/apply/schedulechanges.php>.

Make-Up Policy: Generally, late/make-up work is NOT accepted. All work has a deadline and deadlines must be met even if the student is absent. When an unavoidable reason for an absence arises, such as illness, family death, emergency, official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, I may permit the student to make up work. This is especially important for presentation days. If for any reason you miss a speech you can make up 1 speech as determined by your instructor for a 20-point deduction. Because our meeting times are strictly scheduled, there is only ONE opportunity to make-up a missed speech for an EXCUSED absence. The instructor determines the date/time, provided on your schedule. Students should communicate with the instructor to confirm a make-up is allowed. Each student will be dealt with on an individual basis. If a student must be absent, they should advise the instructor beforehand if possible and if the student is representing the college, they should have a signed permit from a coach or sponsor. In all cases, it is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the instructor In addition, late work may not receive full credit.
