¡Arriba!: comunicación y cultura Plus MyLab Spanish with Pearson etext -- Access Card Package (Single or Multi Semester), 7th Edition

Instructional Methodology

This course is founded on interaction, communication, and culture, and is geared at acquiring all aspects of Spanish language: speaking, listening, reading, writing and a knowledge of the Hispanic culture. During class, the components of speaking and listening will be emphasized. You will be required to work in pairs and small groups. Your active participation is required for the success in this class. The reading and writing components will be mainly practiced at home. The workbook and written assignments will be helpful in developing these skills. The audio component will assist in the comprehension and pronunciation of Spanish.

Course Objectives and Rationale

This course is designed to help students to continue to develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in the Spanish language at the beginning level. Your ability to understand and communicate will develop along with your knowledge of the vocabulary and grammatical structures of the language. In order to become proficient in a foreign language, it is recommended that students spend at least two hours outside of class for each hour of instruction in class. IT IS REQUIRED THAT YOU HAVE ACCESS TO THE INTERNET FOR THIS COURSE. (SPC has several facilities available for students' usage.) This course is intended to fulfill one semester of the foreign language requirement as needed for Associate Degree plans and transfer credit to four-year institutions. The number of courses required varies from discipline and institution.

Grading Procedure

Written Exams	30%
Oral Exams	30%
Daily Grades (MSL, HW, quizzes, participation, classwork) . .	20%
Final Exams (Oral and Written)	20%

Grading Scale:

A=100-90
B=89-80
C=79-70
D*=69-60
F*=59–below

Note: a “C” or better is required to continue to the next Spanish course (SPAN 2311) at SPC.

Expectations and Policies

Daily Grades are composed of three major components: (1) Assignments, (2) Quizzes, and (3) Class Participation and Class work. NO make-ups will be allowed in this category!

1. Assignments will be announced in class and will be due on the dates indicated. Always check with MySpanishLab website for required online assignments and datelines. Assignments may be exercises from textbook, worksheets, hand-outs, reader, and MSL (which stands for MySpanishLab: www.myspanishlab.com —an online textbook/ workbook with listening comprehension, vocabulary, grammar, conversation, reading exercises, videos, games, practice tests, cultural practices, etc.). It is your responsibility to make sure that assignments are submitted/turned in on time and that you complete future assignments even if you are absent. If you cannot attend class, you may e-mail your work (before class) in order to receive credit for it. There will be NO make-ups nor will any late assignments be accepted. If you need assistance, contact Dr. Knotts during office hours.

NOTE: Dr. Knotts will NOT respond to e-mail requesting missed class work and/or homework assignment due to absences. Contact a fellow student instead.

2. Quizzes will cover grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, conversation, reading, listening comprehension from the required textual materials and from any additional material presented in class. There will be NO make-ups on any quizzes as 2 lowest quiz grades will be dropped.
3. Class Participation and Class-work grades are collected randomly throughout the semester at the professor's discretion. Students are required to participate actively in classroom activities. If you are not in class for any reason, you will not receive a grade for that day! There will be NO make-ups on any participation/ class work grades due to tardies, leaving early or any type of absences, no exceptions.

Oral Exams. Active participation in class will help prepare you for the oral exams as they will consist of questions, situations and discussions from the materials practiced in class. All conducted in Spanish. The lowest exam grade will be dropped. More information will follow. See make-up policy below.

Written Exams. Written exams are comprehensive and mandatory and will test reading, writing, culture, listening skills and your ability to use grammar and vocabulary in communicative situations. Active participation in class along with the practices and exercises from MSL will help to prepare you to succeed in this course. The lowest exam grade will be dropped. See make-up policy below.

Final Exams. There are two parts: (1) Final Oral Exam and (2) Final Written Exam.

1. Final Oral Exam is mandatory and required from all students. It is an oral presentation based on the topics presented in class. All conducted in Spanish with the difficulty level of (Chapter 8). It is recommended that this be a skit performed with a classmate. You are encouraged to bring props. You may give me a copy of the script in advance (2 weeks prior to the presentation date) to ensure correct form and meaning. The skit will be performed for the class. This is 10% of your grade. See make-up policy.
2. Final Written Exam: all students are required to take this comprehensive final written exam unless you meet the following requirements: (1) an overall average of 70.0 or higher (including the Final Oral Exam) and (2) no more than 3 absences (regardless of the type of absence) incurred in this class, no exceptions.

Attendance Policy. Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive (for this class, five or more absences) students may be dropped with an F or an X without further warning. Students who enroll in a course but have 'Never Attended' by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of this policy. It is also the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC. If you are receiving financial aid or have any questions, please contact them.

You are expected to be on time and to remain the entire class period. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class period. If you leave class early, or arrive late, you may not receive credit for a quiz, test, in-class activities, worksheets, participation or homework collected that day. Missing class the day before will not be accepted as an excuse for not being prepared when you return. Class participation and attendance are required because they are of greatest importance to success in a foreign language class. Failure to attend a class always results in missed opportunity to hear and speak Spanish, and will have a negative impact on your performance on evaluations. For more information, see SPC Student Guide.

The last day to drop a course and receive “W” is April 25 (Thursday). Per state law, students enrolling for the first time in fall 2007 or later at any Texas college or university may not withdraw from more than six courses during their undergraduate college career. Some exemptions may apply.

You are responsible for all class work covered during absences from class, even in cases in which you are able to satisfy the professor that the absence was unavoidable. An absence is considered unavoidable if it is due to (1) an illness—with proper documentation provided from the doctor’s office, or (2) a college related/ sponsored activity—with a letter from the organization stating the requirement of your presence in advance, or (3) being called to active military service, or (4) an emergency—at the discretion of the professor.

Make-Up Work Policy. There will be absolutely no make-ups on any grades for assignments, quizzes, class participation and/or class-work. If you miss an exam (written/composition, oral or auditory) due to a verifiable unavoidable absence you may be allowed to take the make-up exam; however, it may be in a different format or with a different topic than previously announced and practiced in class, and must be taken at the discretion of the professor. *You must contact Dr. Knotts within one week from the date of your absence in order to be considered for a make-up; otherwise, you will receive a zero for the missed exam.

Class Conduct. It is my belief that learning best occurs in a supportive and respectful atmosphere. Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. When you enroll at South Plains College, you accept the rules and regulations prescribed by the College and it is your obligation to be familiar with the standards of conduct. In order to assure that all students have an opportunity to benefit from time spent in class, unless otherwise approved by the instructor, during class time students are prohibited from engaging in any other form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result, minimally in a request to leave class and be counted ABSENT for that day. Troublesome behavior may be classified as anything that disturbs the instructor or the students during the class period. Listed below are a few examples of troublesome behavior in the classroom:

- Eating, drinking or usage of tobacco products, (bottled waters and beverages with a “twist top” are allowed in the classroom),
- Usage of cell phones or any other electronic devices by playing games or working on other projects during class,
- Displaying of anger or aggression,
- Making rude and/ or offensive remarks,
- Sleeping,
- Talking and visiting with classmates during a lecture, etc.

If problem persists, you will be removed from this course with a grade of WF (withdrawn failing). Refer to the Student Guide or the SPC General Catalog.

Academic Integrity. Cheating and plagiarism constitute serious offenses and will not be tolerated. Examples: for this class, the use of online translators/websites for written assignments is considered cheating and copying other students’ homework is considered plagiarism. You will be dropped from the course with a grade of F. (Refer to the SPC Student Guide and the General Catalog).

ADA Statement. Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office
