e-mail: mkirby@southplainscollege.edu The fastest way to reach me, other than coming to my office during office hours, is to e-mail me. I check e-mails more often than voice mails. Please do NOT e-mail me using Blackboard.

Office Hours: I will be available online during any of my office hours.

Levelland Campus M,W 1230 – 2 p.m.; T, TH 130 p.m. – 2 p.m.; Friday 9 a.m. – 1 p.m. or by appointment

Available Formats: This section of the class is fully online

Prerequisites: None Credit: 3 semester hours

Description: Introduction to basic script formats, terminology, and writing techniques, including the writing of commercials, public service

Supplies Needed: folder or notebook where you can save notes, handouts, and graded assignments.

Textbook: “Blueprint for Screenwriting A Complete Writer’s Guide to Story Structure and Character Development” by Rachel Ballon, PhD

ISBN: 0 – 8058-4923-8

Technical Requirements: It is in your best interest to have reliable access to Internet service and a computer so that you can send and receive e-mail, access lectures and assignments, participate in Collaborate sessions, take exams, and type long scripts. Your final project in this class is to write a screenplay using free software that is available for a PC or a Mac. Because of that, and because the school may be forced to go fully online sometime during the semester, you must try to find access to a remote computer without relying only on a smart phone. There will be wifi hotspots on SPC campuses. Please see: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/emergency/wifi-resources.php>

Please visit with me about computer issues! I can’t help you if I don’t know what your issues are.

Technical Skill Requirements. Be comfortable with the following:

Microsoft Word or a word processor that can save Word compatible files (.doc)
Using email for communication, attaching documents
The ability to download video files, or to stream files
The ability to take digital photographs and upload them as .jpg files into Blackboard

Script Topics: Commercials, Public Service Announcements,
Documentaries, Film Short Screenplay

Course Evaluation: Students' grades in this class will be determined by the following:

Covid Preparedness – 50 points {This includes: wearing a CDC-compliant face covering in class at all times (you will have a 1x for the semester ability to receive 1 replacement mask if you have forgotten yours), using hand sanitizers, keeping 6 feet apart, and communicating with the professor}

Classwork Assignments/homework	470 points
PSA treatment/storyboard/script	80 points
Short Screenplay 5 - 40 pages – written to be entered in contest	400 points

900 – 1000 points = A

800 – 899 points = B

700- 799 points = C

600 – 699 = D

599 and below = F

Sometimes the final number of points available for the course will not reach the 1000 mark. If that is the case, the scale will be recalibrated and you will be notified.

Please do NOT assume that I will contact you to tell you about missed work. All class materials in this class will be available on Blackboard so you can keep track of all materials week by week. You can expect a new class module per week.

The assignments in this class will be deadline driven. You must keep track of deadlines and submit work when it is due. Do NOT assume that I will move deadlines for you unless you contact me.

If you do not participate in class, in any form, for a minimum of 3 weeks without any communication, and you are earning a solid “F”, you may be administratively withdrawn from the class. You may contact me by phone, e-mail, or Collaborate. But you must stay in contact with me.

Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have “Never Attended” by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of “X” or “F” as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student’s responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student’s responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

Deadlines- ALL projects will have deadlines. While many of these may change because of Covid, the goal is to work within them. You need to get used to deadlines that exist in the working world. Late assignments may or may not be accepted depending on the assignment and the reasons for missing the deadlines.

SPC Face Covering Policy:

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

Kirby Face Covering Policy:

It is my policy that students must properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings masks in my classroom at all times. No exceptions. We will take a break in the middle of class so you can go outside and remove your mask for 5 minutes as long as you maintain your social distance. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) at 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement (updated 6/2019)

If you are pregnant, or have given birth been within six months, under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or e-mail cgilster@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

Civility Code:

As future professionals, you are to communicate with each other in a professional and civil manner. Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;
7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.
