Grades in this course are as follows: 90-100% = A; 80 – 89% = B; 70 – 79 % = C; 60 – 69% = D; 59% and below = F

Course grades will be assessed according to the following percentages:

Major Assignments = 80%

Server Problems

When the Blackboard server needs downtime for maintenance, the Blackboard administrator will post an announcement in your course informing the time and date. If the server experiences unforeseen problems your course instructor will send an email.

Lost/Corrupt/Disappeared Files

You must keep/save a copy of every project/assignment on an external disk or personal computer. Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student’s responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have “Never Attended” by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from the course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of “X” or “F” as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student’s responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student’s responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

Specific Attendance Policy Restated:

1. All students enrolled for this course are expected to attend class regularly, be on time, and remain until dismissed.
2. Roll will be taken at each class meeting.
3. If a student is tardy, he or she should speak with professor after class to avoid having tardies count toward absences.
4. Two (2) tardies will constitute an absence.
5. If a student leaves class prior to dismissal of the class, he or she will be counted absent.
6. Whenever absences become excessive and minimum course objectives cannot be met, the student should initiate withdrawal from the course.
7. “Excessive absences” can be defined as more than two weeks worth of unexcused absences through the course of the semester.
8. The only absences labeled as “excused” are those absences due to participation in school functions, or documentable absences due to illness (doctor’s note required in the next class period), or a death in the family requiring the student to be in attendance of a funeral (proof required).
9. The instructor will administratively drop a student due to excessive absences.
10. Students are responsible for classwork covered during absences from class even in cases in which they are able to satisfy the instructor that the absence was unavoidable.

Late Work Policy

Module quizzes, learning activities, vlogs/comments, speech uploads, and peer and self-evaluations are due by 11:59pm Central Standard Time on the Friday of the week assigned. Your Connect Platform also has due dates listed. Late work will not be accepted. The only exception that will be made will be for extended illnesses or a death in the family. In such instances, you must submit verifiable and official documentation to your instructor (e.g., a doctor's note indicating an extended illness or extenuating circumstance). Technological issues are not an excuse for late work. Do your assignments, quizzes and speeches early to ensure you have time for any issues that might arise.

Video Conferences where you will deliver synchronous speeches are mandatory. Because our meeting times are strictly scheduled, there is only ONE opportunity to make-up a missed speech for an EXCUSED absence. Excused absences include illness, family death, emergency, an official school trip or an official school activity, ONLY IF DOCUMENTATION IS PROVIDED. The instructor determines the date/time which is posted on your schedule.

If for any reason you miss a speech you can make up 1 speech as determined by your instructor for a 20 point deduction.

Make-up Policy:

Make-up work is NOT guaranteed. All work has a deadline and deadlines must be met even if the student is absent. See the professor's locator information for emailing work if you are not in class. An absence on the day that you are scheduled for oral presentations or examinations will result in a grade of zero for the assignment unless you meet one of the following requirements. Students may only make up speeches in the event of sickness or the death of a family member and in both cases must provide proof. In the case of sickness, a doctor's note is required to make up a speech. If you don't go to the doctor, then you are not sick enough to miss class! In the event of a funeral, the funeral program or obituary is required. These are the only two cases accepted for any form of makeup speeches. Being unprepared or not knowing the date of your speech is not an acceptable excuse! If, according to the instructor's discretion, the student is allowed to make up such a presentation or exam, the student will automatically receive a grade drop of 10 points for the assignment. Only ONE speech may be made up during the semester or the designated date for makeups.

Course Outcomes: Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to demonstrate proficiency in the following areas:

1. Communication Process: Understanding the communication process
2. Communication Systems and Cultures: Have an awareness of communication systems and communicative cultures.

3. Verbal Communication: Identify, prepare, and deliver clear messages and presentations.

4. Nonverbal Communication: Understand, define, utilize, and interpret different categories of nonverbal communication.

5. Listening: Become aware of poor listening habits, understand the benefits of good listening habits. Be able to practice good listening habits.

6. Interviewing: Identify different types of interviews, evaluate effective interview skills, prepare job interview documents, and conduct an effective information gathering interview.

7. Small groups: Define a small group. Identify the roles taken by small-group participants. Understand functional and dysfunctional team behaviors. Be able to function as an indispensable member of a small-group.

8. Public Speaking: Deliver multiple presentations in a credible and competent way. Foster confidence in one's ability to deliver a speech alone or in a group. Be able to listen to and interpret public speeches delivered by classmates and others more effectively.

Course Schedule - Tentative, subject to change as needed. Assignment due dates are as assigned in class; it is for these reasons that attendance on each class day is crucial for your success. Also note that daily activities are not listed on particular days. This is deliberate. Daily activities can include anything done as a class and submitted on paper to the professor before class is dismissed, via interactive notebooks, or via blackboard. Once again, this means attendance is crucial.
