Course Description:

An intermediate cooking course, using the kitchen laboratory, focusing on the development of knowledge, ability/skills, attitudes and personal qualities which leads to job success and personal fulfillment.

Students will be introduced to both the knowledge and understanding of cuisines from around the world. Though it is impossible to study the world's cuisines, cultural differences, history and ethnicity in 1 semester, the areas of study are chosen according to industry preference. Meaning the cuisines of the world that the student will most likely encounter in a professional restaurant, hotel or hospitality environment. Each country or region covered will describe food customs, common ingredients and famous culinary dishes from that region. The students will learn how these cultural and regional cuisines have been assimilated into modern American Cuisine. Students will gain an understanding, appreciation and respect for the diversity in cultures and foods from around the world. Students will prepare selected international recipes from the following areas:

INTERNATIONAL CUISINE

1. Cuisine of the British Isles
2. Cuisine of France
3. Cuisine of Italy
4. Cuisine of Spain/Portugal and the Mediterranean
5. Cuisine of China
6. Cuisine of Japan
7. Cuisine of Pacific Rim/ Southeast Asia
8. Cuisine of India / North Africa
9. Cuisine of Caribbean – Caribbean Fusion
10. Cuisine of Latin-South America
11. New American- Hawaiian
12. New American-Creole- Cajun
13. New American-Comfort Food
14. Breads and Cheeses of the World
15. Breads and Cheeses of the World

16. Final Exam and Mandatory Cleaning

After completing this course, the student should be able to demonstrate classical cooking skills associated with international and ethnic specific cuisines. The student will have a better understanding of international food sources, global culinary traditions/cultures and acquire a more in-depth artistic appreciation of food, its preparation techniques and terminology.

ADA STATEMENT: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. - South Plains College Culinary Arts Alcohol Use Policy: South Plains College Culinary Arts program uses various liquors, liqueurs, wines and beers as recipe ingredients within the culinary curriculum. Alcohol is secured in the culinary facility and only accessible by culinary faculty. Alcohol may only be used if a recipe requires liquor/liqueur/wine/beer as an ingredient. Consumption of alcohol by students is strictly prohibited. Alcohol is only to be handled by instructors; no exceptions. Violations will be considered a “Student Code of Conduct” violation and will result in strict disciplinary action, including referrals to the Executive Director of Lubbock Center, Dean of Students, and Campus Police.

Grading Policy:

1. There will be no Make-up on Homework Assignments or Exams.
2. Homework Assignments and required readings will be assigned online through Blackboard in the course content tab throughout the semester.
3. Individual effort must be demonstrated on all exams. Also considered inappropriate is the use of, in any fashion, a solution manual of any kind. It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of students to present as their own any work that they have not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a serious offense and renders the offenders liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension. Academic Dishonesty: “At minimum, the first instance of academic dishonesty will be submitted to Student Judicial Services and the student will receive a zero for the assignment. The second instance of academic dishonesty will be submitted to Student Judicial Services and the student will receive an F in the course and be expelled from the program”.
4. Class attendance and attention will be crucial to the student’s successful completion of this course. Attendance will be taken.
