- B. PURPOSE OF THE COURSE: English 1302 uses three of the main genres of literature- fiction, drama and poetry, to help students develop new writing skills, focusing on research to convey original ideas.

II. SPECIFIC COURSE/INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS:

REQUIRED TEXTS: Portable Literature: Reading, Reacting, Writing Kirszner and Mandell 9th edition or its online version. You may use the eBook if you want. It's available from the publisher- Cengage Learning.

COURSE ATTENDANCE: Because of Covid-19, please expect changes this semester as the situation develops. This semester, attendance will focus more on submitting assignments instead of actual in-person class attendance. If it becomes necessary to withdraw from the course, students MUST TAKE THE INITIATIVE to drop the class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: The guidelines for academic integrity set forth in the current South Plains College catalog will be followed, but perhaps one specific category should be addressed here: plagiarism and cheating. According to the SPC catalog, "Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers." Failure to comply with this policy will result in a '0' (no credit) for the assignment and can result in an "F" for the course if circumstances warrant.

Except in extreme cases, disciplinary action in cases of cheating or plagiarism will be handled by and at the discretion of the instructor and, if necessary, in consultation with the department chairperson. Depending on the nature and the severity of the problem, individual instructors may assign penalties from zero for the assignment to an "F" in the course. Extreme cases may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from South Plains College. GRADING POLICY: Final course grades will be calculated using the following point system:

5 Quizzes @ 50 points each	= 250 points
30 Discussion Posts @ 5 points each	= 150 points
1 Research papers @ 100 points	= 100 points
1 Outline @ 100 points	= 100 points
1 Research paper @ 200 points	= 200 points
The Final Exam @ 100 points	= 200 points
TOTAL	= 1000 points

GRADING SCALE :	900 - 1000 = A	Superior
	800 - 899 = B	Above average
	700 - 799 = C	Average
	600 - 699 = D	Poor
	below $600 = F$	Unacceptable

GRADING STANDARDS: Individual assignments have specific grading criteria, but this list outlines the basic grading standards.

- Mechanics. All assignments should follow the conventions of standard, written English, with emphases on grammar, spelling, punctuation and capitalization

- On topic. All papers must clearly follow the assigned topic. Paper which are off topic receive no credit (0).

Keys to success for this Covid – 19 semester:

- Be flexible some things will probably change, and we will go with the flow, but deadlines are absolute. Any changes to the syllabus or assignments will be made well in advance and repeated.
- Don't get behind the semester is short, and it will be very difficult to catch up if you let yourself fall behind. It is so much better to get on top of your assignments and stay ahead of the game.
- Read! this has always been an essential skill in college, but this semester more than ever. You'll need to read each assignment carefully, re-read it, outline or summarize it, then read it again. Everything. I won't assign something unless you really need to know it.
- Ask questions— you're not expected to have all the answers, but when you don't know something, you will be expected to ask.
- SPC Email I know that many students have gotten away from using email, as more effective means of communication have become popular. However, for this class, email will still be our primary means of communication. You only have to log into the course twice a week (minimum), but you need to check your SPC email every day. The IS (internet services) department will help you forward your SPC email to your phone, if you'd like.
- Stay safe be healthy. Yes, you have to wear a mask. Wash your hands often.
