Departmental Course Description and Purpose:

This course is a survey of world literature from the ancient world to the present geared toward future teachers. Students will study works of prose, poetry, drama, and fiction in relation to their historical and cultural contexts. Texts will be selected from a diverse group of authors and traditions. ENGL 2331 is recommended for AAT majors and future teachers seeking certification in EC-4 and desiring to teach English in 4–8 and 7–12 grades. Not only will the course focus on texts often taught in middle and high school English classrooms, but it will provide students the opportunity to design and present lesson plans and learning activities they can use in their future profession. In addition, the course will help prepare future educators for their state content certification exams.

Course Description:

This class is designed for students who are majoring in English and minoring in Education or students majoring in Education and minoring in English who plan to teach middle school or high school English. We will discuss in a workshop format some of the literature texts from around the world that you will likely be asked to teach in high school or middle school. Students will have a chance to work in groups and to present material to the class as a whole for commentary, suggestions, and helpful criticism. The idea behind the class is to give you some deep background in these texts, to generate some practical strategies for teaching them (and literature in general), and to anticipate and solve potential classroom problems before they arise. First-year teaching, regardless of institution, can be incredibly hectic, and a beginning teacher who already has teaching materials and definitive strategies for a particular text in hand will be at a distinct advantage.

Required Texts:

Cisneros, Sandra. The House on Mango Street ISBN: 9780679734772
Satrapi, Marjane. Persepolis ISBN: 9780375714832
Shakespeare, William. Macbeth (Folger Shakespeare Library) ISBN: 9781451694727

Wiesel, Elie. Night ISBN: 9780374500016

Other texts will be distributed in class.

Prerequisite: English 1301 and English 1302

Student Learning Objectives:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will

- Identify key ideas, representative authors and works, significant historical or cultural events, and characteristic perspectives or attitudes expressed in the literature of different periods or regions;
- Analyze literary works as expressions of individual or communal values within the social, political, cultural, or religious contexts of different literary periods;
- Demonstrate knowledge of the development of characteristic forms or styles of expression during different historical periods or in different regions;
- Articulate the aesthetic principles that guide the scope and variety of works in the arts and humanities;
- Write research-based critical papers about the assigned reading in clear and grammatically correct prose, using various critical approaches to literature; and
- Demonstrate the use of best practices in teaching literature.

Course Work:

This is a reading-intensive course that is focused on both the theoretical and the practical aspects of teaching literature. Students will read and consider texts that examine and critique various pedagogical approaches. Through the assigned readings and class discussions, students will consider their own views on teaching. They will be provided opportunities to create actual classroom assignments and to lead class discussions through student teaching sessions. The final exam will be in the form of a formal reflective paper on their evolving and developing teaching approaches and strategies. Regular attendance and participation in class discussion is absolutely required.

Course Evaluation: A final letter grade will be assigned based on this grading scale: A (90-100), B (80-89), C (70-79), D (60-69), F (59 and below).

Teaching Journal (8 entries)	24%
Assignment Creation (4 small assignments)	12%
Assignment Creation (4 large assignments)	12%
Student Teaching Session (2)	22%
Participation	10%
Final Exam Essay	20%

Attendance:

- Because this course meets via Zoom only once a week, students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful. Any class session or activity that you miss, regardless of the cause, reduces the opportunity for learning and may adversely affect your achievement.
- Students may be administratively withdrawn from the course after exceeding 2 absences.
- If you accumulate excessive absences after the last day to drop, you will receive an F for the course.

- Be advised—I do not accept late work for any reason. You cannot make up essays; you cannot make up assignments.
- COVID-19: If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not come to campus and either seek medical attention or test for COVID-19.
 - Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
 - Fever or chills
 - Muscles or body aches
 - Vomiting or diarrhea
 - New loss of taste and smell
- Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376. Proof of a positive test is required. A home test is sufficient, but students must submit a photo of the positive result. The date of test must be written on the test result and an ID included in the photo. If tested elsewhere (clinic, pharmacy, etc.), please submit a copy of the doctor's note or email notification. Results may be emailed to DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at dedens@southplainscollege.edu.
- If you test positive for Covid-19, you will not be penalized for absences as long as you've submitted appropriate documentation. However, you will still need to turn in all assignments in a responsible manner and keep up with the rest of the class.
- Please notify me when you are going to be out of town for a school sponsored event. I will let you work ahead so that you don't miss any deadlines. However, please know that no exceptions will be made to the late assignment policy.
- To be successful in this course, you must attend consistently and punctually and participate fully.
- When you are absent, be sure to get the notes and information about what you missed from a classmate. I can't reteach the material you missed one-on-one. However, if you need handouts or assignment instructions, etc., be sure to see me during office hours.

Student Responsibilities: Students are expected to

1. Be on time and attend class
2. Be responsible for the learning process, including preparation for class, such as reading and homework; participation in class discussions, including asking relevant questions; getting assignments and/or notes if absent; and accepting responsibility for not understanding an assignment or failing an assignment
3. Be responsible for having an appropriate attitude and using appropriate language in academic environments; not use condescending, inflammatory, threatening, or profane rhetoric, whether verbally or in written form, in academic environments
4. Have respectful behavior toward instructor and classmates in order to contribute to the atmosphere necessary for learning
5. Be responsible for courteous actions to others, especially by putting away cell phones and other distractions while in class
6. Be responsible for writing down all grades and applying them to the grading scale used for the class, which is shown in the course's policy statement/syllabus
7. Submit all assignments in accordance with due dates, formats, and requirements
8. Avoid all forms of cheating and plagiarism on all assignments, including improper collaboration
9. Ask questions when something is unclear.

Style Guide:

- We will use the APA 7 style guide for formatting and documentation in this course. Specific rules regarding this style guide can be found in our Blackboard course and at https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research_and_citation/apa_style/apa_formatting_and_style_guide/general_format.html. All documents you submit should be formatted using APA 7 standards, and all citations you write, whether in-text or on a References page, should follow APA 7 guidelines for citation. APA is the official style guide for almost every college of education in four-year universities.

Assignment Deadlines:

- Unless prior approval is received, you will not receive credit for a late assignment. Do not wait until the night before to complete assignments.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
2. Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
3. Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
4. Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
2. Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
3. Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
4. Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
5. Taking an examination for another;
6. Altering grade records;

7. Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
8. Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
9. Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Zoom Live Session Expectations

- Be on time. Log in early enough (5 to 10 minutes) to have your audio and camera set up. Be ready to work when class time begins. We only have 75 minutes together, so it is important that we begin promptly.
- Be professional: Treat live class time as you would a professional setting.
- Be prepared: Each week you are expected to prepare for the live session prior to class time; specific details on work to be completed before the live session can be found in Blackboard.
- Be engaged: You are expected to be ready to work during your live session. Live sessions require your full presence and commitment to learning. You will be asked to refer back to your readings and activities for the week, so please be prepared for this.
- Microphone/Video Settings: Your webcam should be turned on throughout the entire live session (unless you have some extraordinary circumstance). Your microphone should be muted except for times when you are speaking to the class. Be sure to unmute your mic before speaking to the class or breakout group. Be sure to pull up the Chat feature in Zoom each time you open the program.

Student Code of Conduct Policy: Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Disabilities Statement: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Non-Discrimination Statement: South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360.

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement: If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations, you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact the Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cgilster@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.
