Departments

English and Philosophy

Course Description

This course is an intensive study and practice of the composition process from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. The curriculum includes the teaching of effective rhetorical modes as well as audience, purpose, arrangement, style, and collateral readings. The instructional focus is on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis.

This course partially satisfies a Core Curriculum Requirement: Communications Foundational Component Area (010)

Core Curriculum Objectives Addressed:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
2. Write essays that exhibit logic, unity, development, and coherence.
3. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
4. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose.
5. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
6. Use American English, with an emphasis on correct grammar, parallelism, punctuation, spelling, and mechanics in language appropriate for academic essays.
7. Write a minimum of six 500-word essays.

Departments

The Teaching and Learning Center

Course Description

INRW 0300 serves as a paired support course for students enrolled in ENGL 1301 who are not yet TSI-complete in reading and/or writing. The focus is on teaching students critical reading and academic writing skills to equip them for success in Composition I. Successful completion of this course fulfills TSI requirements for reading and/or writing.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.
3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer's purpose.
6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
10. Recognize and apply the conventions of Standard English in reading and writing.

Student Assessment

A pre- and post-test in reading and writing will be used to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester.

Course Details

Student writing Portfolio consists of THREE major essays. Each major essay will have 5 components: pre-writing, outline, rough draft, revisions, and final copy

Active Reading

Reader response essays

Online Video discussions (Flipgrid)

In-class activities

Daily Grammar lessons/quizzes

Final (essay)

Grades are determined by the following scale:

90-100 = A                      60-69 = D

80-89 = B                      0-59 = F

70-79 = C

Your grade will be based on the following percentages:

Writing Portfolio (2 600-word essays) -Prewriting, outlines, rough drafts, revisions, and final copies -Each final copy is worth 8% of the Writing Portfolio total (compromising 24%)	50%
Writing Assignments	20%
Active Reading Assignments	20%
Grammar Lessons (Khan Academy and in-class activities)	5%
Final (reflective essay)	5%

**Academic progress is posted in each student's grade book in Blackboard.*

**Students need a "C," which is 70% or higher, to pass these courses and move on to other reading-intensive courses and satisfy the TSIA requirement.****

Tutoring with Academic Coach

It is mandatory that students will meet with Barbara, our academic coach, if their class average falls below a 70 OR if students receive less than a 70 on a major essay

Grading Policy

1. All work is due as stated by the instructor and/or the syllabus
2. All work is due on time. LATE WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.
3. Grades are usually updated and entered in Blackboard within a week after the assignment is due. Although, I may need 2 weeks to grade major essays rough drafts and final copies.
****It is the students' responsibility to track their grades in Gradebook in Blackboard.

Attendance Policy

Instruction will be online; participation is still mandatory. Students must login at least twice in an academic week. An academic week is considered Monday through Friday.

If a student has not logged-in for three consecutive weeks, the student may be dropped from the course.

A student cannot remain in one course, while dropped from the other course- the student will be dropped from both courses as these are co-requisite courses.

Academic Coach

This semester, we have the opportunity to utilize an Academic Coach in our English Co-Req classroom! Our Academic Coach is Barbara Waygood. It is Barbara's job to help you in our English Co-Req course in any facet pertaining to the course.

The Academic Coach functions as:

1. A tutor, providing in-time tutoring services in a small group setting or one-on-one tutoring in the classroom or during an authorized tutoring session.
2. A coach will tutor all students who earn less than the grade of C on their first exam/major assignment and help them to develop successful academic habits.
3. A mentor or model who demonstrates effective student behaviors and successful academic habits.

The Academic Coach may engage in the following types of activities:

- Assist the instructor by facilitating small group exercises or discussions.
- Provide students with academic tips and skills for success in the academic setting.
- Provided one-on-one tutoring with students who need extra academic support with class activities.
- Tutor students and answer questions during in-class hands-on assignments and skill development activities
- Lead discussions or short presentations from a personal, student prospective concerning how he/she was successful in the course, with an assignment, or with the development of a skill. This is only allowed when the instructor is present in the classroom.

The Academic Coach may not engage in the following types of activities:

- Teach new concepts the course instructor has not already introduced.
- Present lectures or demonstrations of skill development activities without the instructor present in the classroom.
- Grade assignments.
- Take role or access student grades.
- Assist or tutor students outside of our classroom roster.
- Assist or tutor students in our class for their other classes
- Assist or tutor students outside of his office and classroom hours unless previously agreed upon by the academic coach and the student.

Writing Portfolio Essays

There will be THREE major essays in this course.

Students are required to complete a writing portfolio for each major essay.

The writing portfolio will include each of the following parts for the THREE major essays students will write this semester:

- Pre-writing
- Outline
- 500-word essay drafts
- Teacher, academic coach (or tutoring), and peer reviews
- Final Copy (revised and polished copy)

Personal Narrative (major essay)

A personal narrative essay is an autobiographical writing focusing on important and pivotal moments from the author's life. Students will describe their life in first-person point of view.

Definition and Example (major essay)

A Student Case Study Analysis is an essay that examines a student case study and looks for background information, issues or problems that hinder the student's growth, and provides a several options for future growth. English Co-Req students will use inference and analytical skills to evaluate a student case study.

Compare and Contrast (major essay)

A compare and contrast essay will list and explain all important similarities and differences of two distinct entities in a four-paragraph format.

Reader Response / Double Entry Journal

A reader response or double entry journal is a two-paragraph essay gives a brief summary of the reading/text in the first paragraph, and the student's impressions, thoughts, analysis and personal ideas about the reading/text in the second paragraph. Students will write several reader responses in the course of this semester.

Covid: Fall 2022

South Plains College is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy learning and work environment for students, faculty and staff as the SPC Texan Community returns to campus amid the COVID-19 pandemic. To accomplish this goal, it is imperative that everyone join together to do their part. SPC has developed a Return to Campus Plan that outlines how the college will operate and the measures that will be implemented to help protect you and your loved ones. We look forward to welcoming you back to campus, as we continue to emphasize the following points:

- All students, faculty and staff should monitor their health and notify appropriate personnel and their health care provider if they experience any symptoms related to COVID-19.
- All students, faculty and staff who have symptoms of COVID-19 should contact DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN in Health Services at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or at (806) 716-2376.
- Cleaning and sanitization process will be emphasized in every area of our campus.

Take time to review the plan along with other resources found on this webpage. We want your experience at SPC to be positive and safe as we all return to campus. SPC will continue to provide the best possible educational experience.

\****Please note: I reserve the right to change this tentative schedule. I may add, delete, edit, or revise material to help students accomplish the learning outcomes of the course. If a change is made, it will be announced in class, and updated schedules will be made available on Blackboard.*
