Course Description:

This course is a continuation of ENGL 1301 and an intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing researched-based expository and persuasive texts, along with being an introduction to literature. The course emphasizes effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of a sampling of literary, verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions.

Course Purpose:

English 1302 has a two-fold purpose: it encourages critical writing by introducing the students to research and writing from sources, and it introduces the students to the study of literature, which may include short stories, drama, and poetry.

Textbooks and Other Materials:

This course satisfies a Core Curriculum Requirement:

Yes—Communication Foundational Component Area

Core Curriculum Objectives addressed:

- *Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- *Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- *Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- *Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Upon successful completion of this course, students will:
1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
  2. Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
  3. Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
  4. Apply critical thinking to the study of literature and write essays which demonstrate that critical thinking.
  5. Use edited American English to write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
  6. Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)
  7. Read and view videos of works of literature; analyze the use of literary devices (plot, point of view, theme, characterization, setting, symbolism, tone, etc.); participate in class discussions of the readings; and be tested over their understanding of the readings and lectures through quizzes, examinations, and/or written assignments.

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment:

A pre- and post-test and/or a writing assignment rubric will be used to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester.

Course Evaluation:

Students' work will be evaluated by means of A, B, C, D, or F: Superior, Good, Average, Poor, or Unacceptable. Numerical grades are assigned for convenience in averaging grades only. All assignments must be completed and turned in on the date due before students are eligible to pass the class. Late work may be dropped one letter grade.

Essay/Paper Assessment Guidelines:

- *The "A" essay should be correctly formatted in MLA style in Courier New #12 with only a few spelling, wrong word, and minor grammatical or punctuation errors. It should be on an appropriate topic and have a good title and transitions. The introduction should have a specific thesis as the first or last sentence. The conclusion should have a restated thesis as the first sentence, sum up, draw conclusions, and not contain new material (all relevant material should be presented in the body paragraphs). Each body paragraph should be well supported and have a topic sentence as its first sentence that specifically corresponds back to the thesis by using the appropriate supporting point from the thesis. There should be no major grammatical errors. The essay should be thoughtful, parallel, focused, and developed, with each paragraph having a minimum of three sentences.
- *The "B" essay contains all of the above with one or two types of major grammatical errors.
- *The "C" essay has a thesis, introduction, and conclusion, but lacks support and/or has three to four types of major grammatical errors.
- *The "D" essay contains one or more of the following: lacks a strong thesis, organization, or focus (paper doesn't follow thesis) or has formatting errors or multiple spelling and/or grammatical errors.
- *The "F" essay doesn't meet the minimum requirements. Some examples of "F" essays are those that 1) are written on an unapproved or inappropriate topic; 2) do not meet the minimum word count; 3) are not written in the correct format; 4) have fewer than four paragraphs; 5) are unreadable; or 6) are offensive/inflammatory (like saying those who don't agree with the writer are morons, etc.).

Grading Policy:

20%--Short Story Test
 10%--Daily Quizzes
 30%--Literary Papers
 10%--Research Paper Deadlines: each deadline is worth 14 points; a late deadline is worth 7 points
 30%--Research Paper; the Final is a Revision of the Research Paper

100%--Total

Two Ways To Be Exempt From the Final: 1. having 1 or 0 absences; or
 2. having an A average.

Workshop Style

This class will be taught in Workshop Style so that the students can write in a more casual atmosphere and have access to help from the instructor and other students. Students will have some latitude with class attendance because of the writing's being self-paced and because of the Research Paper Deadlines. Because of this, in order to assure that students learn what they should and don't fail the course from procrastination, there are 3 hard deadlines that must be made in order not to be dropped from the class.

3 Deadlines That Must Be Made to Avoid Being Dropped from the Class:

1. Anyone who hasn't turned in the original Literary Paper by the class period before the class does the Literary Paper Revision will be dropped from the class.
2. Anyone who doesn't make the first Research Paper Deadline will be dropped from the class (it counts for 4 absences).
3. Anyone who has not submitted all the deadlines by the Rough Draft in Final Draft Form Deadline that's checked by me will be dropped from the class.

2 Other Ways to Be Dropped from the Class:

1. Anyone who has 5 unexcused absences will be dropped from the class.
2. Anyone who plagiarizes or cheats will be dropped from the class.

Peer Editing:

- *Students who don't have a completed Rough Draft by 20 minutes into the period will not be allowed to Peer Edit--with no exceptions;
- *Not doing Peer Editing on the Literary Paper will drop your Literary Paper one letter grade;
- *Circle any problems that you see on other people's papers; otherwise, don't write on other people's papers;
- *Answer the questions on the editing sheets; use n/a for non applicable;
- *Spell out all words on the editing sheets, even "yes" and "no".

Research Paper Deadlines:

- *All deadline must be in Courier New #12, in MLA form, and turned in to me in person.
- *All deadlines must have been turned in before I'll accept your Research Paper.

Missed Quizzes:

- *Reading quizzes can't be made up;
- *Video quizzes can be made up if the student passes the quiz; passing a video quiz will give the student a quiz grade and make up for an absence.

Missed Tests: a missed test needs to be made up within a week of the student's return to class.

Late Work:

- *No late work will be accepted after the last day of regular class.
- *The Literary Paper or the Revision will be accepted on the due date or on the following class day without penalty; after that, the paper be dropped a letter grade for each day (Mon.-Fri.) it's late, unless the student has documentation for illness or a hospital stay or has made previous arrangements with me.
- *The Research Paper will be accepted on its due date or on the day of the following class period with no penalty; no late Research Papers will be accepted, unless prior arrangements have been made with me.

Student Responsibilities: Students are expected to

1. Be on time and regularly attend class.
2. Be responsible for having an appropriate attitude and using appropriate language in academic environments; not use condescending, inflammatory, threatening, or profane rhetoric, whether verbally or in written form, in academic environments.
3. Have respectful behavior toward instructor and classmates in order to contribute to the atmosphere necessary for learning.
4. Be responsible for courteous actions to others, especially by putting away cell phones and other distractions while in class.
5. Be responsible for writing down all grades and applying them to the grading scale used for the class, which is shown in the course's policy statement/syllabus.
6. Submit all assignments in accordance with due dates, formats, and requirements.
7. Avoid all forms of cheating and plagiarism on all assignments, including improper collaboration.
8. Ask questions when something is unclear.

SPC Attendance Policy: according to the "Class Attendance" policies stated below in the SPC General Catalog: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. ... It is the student's responsibility to be aware of [the Instructor's attendance] policy.

My Attendance Policy:

Students who miss half the period will be counted absent. Students with more than four absences don't meet the minimum standards of the class and will be dropped. Students who are borderline (59,69,79,89) at the end of the semester will be moved up a letter grade if they have 1 or 0 absences. The final is optional for students with an A average or 1 or 0 absences. Students who are 5 or more minutes late will be counted absent each time after the second time. The class will be working from the Workbook each day, so students who habitually don't bring their Workbook to class will be counted absent, starting with the third time.
