Coordinating Board Academic Approval Number: 45.1001.52.25

Purpose: This course is an introductory survey of the discipline of Political Science, focusing on the history, scope, and methods of the field. A primary objective is that students will learn to differentiate among the various fields of Political Science, including Political Theory, American Politics, Comparative Politics, and International Relations. This course is designed to function along the lines of an Independent Study course. Please note, this course is an Elective/Transfer course, but does NOT meet the state (nor SPC) requirements for Political Science for those who wish to earn an Associates or Bachelor's Degree (that requirement is met by completing GOVT2305 and GOVT2306).

Targeted Population: Clearly, this course is designed to introduce the various fields of Political Science to those students who are interested in pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in the field. However, it is not limited to those with such career goals, and is open to any student interested in expanding their knowledge of the field of Political Science.

Course Requirements: This is a reading and writing intensive course! Only those students with strong reading, comprehension and writing skills, along with considerable resolve and dedication, should enroll in this course. The student is strongly advised to dedicate significant time and efforts to the readings required for this course, and not fall behind. The requirements for this course are extensive, but should not be excessively difficult if granted appropriate attention.

Assignment Explanations: More details concerning the various writing (Papers and Essays) portions of this course are available as separate tabs. Each should be carefully read and followed by the student.

Grades: The grading scale for this course is as follows:

100-90= A

89-80= B

79-70= C

69-60= D

59-00= F

There is no curve for this course, nor for any assignment. You will be graded only by your own efforts. No extra credit is available. Additionally, rounding up of final grades will occur for a maximum of one (1) point (thus, a 78.9 will not be rounded up to a 'B').

Attendance: Attendance will not be checked for this course. There are no requirements to participate in any chat-rooms, discussion, or group projects.

Dishonesty: Cheating and/or plagiarism will not be tolerated! Violators may be removed from South Plains College. Refer to the Plagiarism tab for the instructor's current policy on this issue. While this course is conducted over Blackboard/internet, it is not a group effort. Honesty and integrity are expected at all times.

Foundation Skills: This course will attempt to accomplish the following academic skills:

Basic Skills: Reading (F-1) and Writing (F-2).

Thinking Skills: Creative Thinking (F-7), Decision Making (F-8), Problem Solving (F-9), Knowing How to Learn (F-11), and Reasoning (F-12).

Personal Qualities: Responsibility (F-13), Self-Esteem (F-14), Self-
Management (F-16), and Integrity/Honesty (F-17)

Chapter Quizzes and Dates: Below is a list of chapters that will be covered in this course. A short description follows each chapter number. All quizzes are available immediately, but do note the due dates listed in parenthesis. Questions for these quizzes will be of Multiple-choice style. There will be twenty questions for each quiz, and a time limit of forty-five (45) minutes will apply. You may attempt each quiz twice, with the highest score saved. Quizzes will be available from 12:00am on the first day of availability until 11:30pm on the last day of availability. Students who fail to take a quiz during the availability period will receive a grade of zero (0) for that quiz. There are thirteen (13) chapter quizzes, and the average of these will equal 40% of the students' final grade.

Student Support: If you are having problems with Blackboard, please contact Student Support at:
blackboard@southplainscollege.edu

Pop-up Blockers: Students are urged to disable all pop-up blockers, as these can interfere with the taking of the chapter quizzes. This problem has been most pronounced with laptops, but has also occurred with desktop PC's.

Due Dates: All due dates for the various assignments are not negotiable. Late papers are not accepted, and no extensions for quiz dates will be provided, for any reason. The student is strongly urged to make the necessary and appropriate accommodations to meet their obligations as far in advance as possible.

Statement of Nondiscrimination: It is the policy of this instructor not to discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation or veteran status, particularly veterans of the Vietnam era. In addition to complying with federal and state equal opportunity laws and regulations and/or resolutions of professional organizations in education and psychology, my diversity policy declares harassment based on individual differences to be inconsistent with my instructional mission and educational goals.

ADA Statement: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office through the Guidance and Counseling Centers at Reese Center (Building 8) 716-4675, or Levelland (Student Services Building) 716-2577.

Pregnancy: If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact Director of Health and Wellness, at (806) 716-2529 for assistance.
