

Our team is working behind-the-scenes to finalize your itinerary—including flights, meals, hotel rooms, and guides. More details to come!

Mason Chavez

 GET IN TOUCH

Travel dates

2023

MAY 16

MAY 18 – MAY 28

MAY 30

Earliest departure

Requested
dates

Latest return

Departing from

Lubbock (TX)

Requests

Airline must be US-based airline

Flights & hotels

We'll post details here as soon as they're available.

COVID-19 Travel Requirements

All travelers must adhere to entry and on-program requirements while traveling. View the COVID-19 travel requirements for your specific itinerary now.

DAY 1

Fly overnight to Ireland

Meet your Tour Director at the airport

Travel to Killarney

Visit Bunratty Castle, a living museum where visitors can see what Medieval Irish life was like

Enjoy dinner in Killarney

◆ Cultural engagement: Visit the Kerry Bog Village Museum and wander through a re-creation of an Irish village from the early 1800s as costumed guides demonstrate the way of life that prevailed in 19th-century rural Ireland

Take an excursion to the Ring of Kerry, a 112-mile coastal route with incredible views of the Atlantic Ocean and the surrounding mountain range of Macgillycuddy's Reeks

Travel via Blarney to Dublin

See the Rock of Cashel

◆ Cultural engagement: Visit Blarney Castle, the famed medieval fortification which is said to grant the gift of eloquence to anyone who kisses the Blarney Stone

Enjoy a traditional Guinness stew dinner in Dublin

◆ Guided learning: Take a guided tour of Dublin

With your expert local guide you will see:

- Dublin's five iconic Georgian squares, which span the north and south sides of Dublin and are surrounded by homes with colorful doors
 - O'Connell Street, a bustling street filled with monuments
 - St. Stephen's Green, the largest of the five Georgian squares
 - Phoenix Park and the presidential residence
-

See the Book of Kells at Trinity College, a manuscript created more than 1,000 years ago by Irish monks

Visit St. Patrick's Cathedral, whose presence honors the patron saint of Ireland

◆ Independent exploration: Spend a half day exploring Dublin on your own

Travel via ferry to Holyhead, a port city in Wales

Travel via Snowdonia and see its lush greenery on your way to the British Midlands

Visit a Welsh castle

Enjoy dinner in the British Midlands

Travel via the British Midlands to Stratford-upon-Avon, Oxford and London

Take a tour of Stratford-upon-Avon

Enjoy lunch in Stratford-upon-Avon

◆ Guided learning: Visit the half-timbered house where Shakespeare was born and visit Anne Hathaway's cottage, a picturesque farmhouse where the Bard's wife spent her childhood

Take a tour of Oxford, the world's oldest university town whose alma maters include Tony Blair and Margaret Thatcher

Take a guided tour of London

With your expert local guide you will see:

- Big Ben, an iconic London bell at the Palace of Westminster
- Houses of Parliament, home to England's governing body
- Piccadilly Circus, a five-way intersection
- St. Paul's Cathedral, a domed church which has hosted many royal events
- Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace (if scheduled)

Explore on your own or add this in-depth excursion:

Windsor Castle

Enjoy a fish and chips dinner in London

Take a guided excursion to Stonehenge and Bath

Visit Stonehenge, whose origin and purpose is unknown, though most believe it to have been a temple and observatory or a sacred site for the burial of high-ranking citizens from societies of long ago

Visit the Roman Baths which was a favorite vacation destination of early Romans and 18th-century English aristocracy alike and built for their enjoyment of the hot springs

◆ Independent exploration: Spend a full day exploring London on your own

